

THURSDAY

Room 111 (conference room), Centre for European Studies, Garbarska 7a

9.00-9.30	Registration, coffee & cookies		13.45-15.15	Panel II	Who let the dogs out?
				Chair: Magdalena Komisarz
9.30-9.45	Official opening			Paulina Rydz Jagiellonian University	The Testimony of Bobby, the Kantian Dog. A Dialogue with Emmanuel Levinas
9.45-10.45	Keynote speech			Carolin Eirich Universität zu Berlin	Untethered – A Story of Cohabitation
	Przemysław Tacik Institute of European Studies Jagiellonian University	Re-presenting Animals		Dagmara Sikora Jagiellonian University	The History of Reasons
10.45-11.00	Coffee break		15.15-15.30	Coffee break
11.00-12.30	Panel I	Non-human animals and human animals' structures	15.30-16.40	Panel III	Ethical animal
	Chair: Dagmara Sikora			Chair: Przemysław Tacik
	Iga Głazewska University of Warsaw	Non-human Animal Liberation. Animal Rights or Animal Welfare		Eamonn Connor Utrecht University	Saltwater Ethics. Reading Animal Entanglements in Leviathan
	Shih-Yun Wu University of Eastern Finland	Influence of Legislation on Public Attitude Towards Animal Welfare in Taiwan	16.40-17.00	Coffee break
	Emel Çelik University of Tartu	'Alternative' Encounters with Animals at Schools	17.00-18.00	Keynote speech
				Dorota Łagodzka Faculty of Artes Liberales University of Warsaw	Animal Subjectivity in Art
12.30-13.45	Lunch break		21.00	(Hopefully) The best beer in Kraków

FRIDAY

Room 122, Institute of European Studies, Ingardena 3

9.30-11.30 Keynote speeches

Philip Line
Independent researcher

Animals in Medieval Tales and Legend

Tua Korhonen
Department of Languages
University of Helsinki

Homeric Animal Similes as Models for Animal Poetry

11.30-11.45 Coffee break

11.45-13.15 Panel IV

Non-human animals and the (pre)history

Chair: Magdalena Komisarz

Kasia Kleczkowska
Jagiellonian University

Animal and Human in Presocratic Philosophy

Weronika Krzemień
National Museum in Warsaw

Lupa Romana – Controversial Origins of the City of Rome

Ashley Kirsten Weed
University of Illinois

Apuleius' Metamorphoses

13.15-14.15 Lunch break

14.15-15.15 Panel V

Literature and non-human animals

Chair: Przemysław Tacik

Nóra Ugron
Babeş-Bolyai University

*Women's and Cows Shared Experience of War in the Documentaristic
Graphic Novel "Kannas" by Hanneri-ina Moisseinen*

Duygu Erbil
Utrecht University

Relational Life Narrative: Towards Affective Encounters

15.15-15.30 Coffee break

15.30-17.00 Panel VI

Chair: Dagmara Sikora

Tess Josien Post
Utrecht University

The history of abusement

*The Fate of the Nazi Cows:
Post-Rewilding Under Neo-Liberal Capitalism*

Maksymilian Czaja
Pontifical University of John Paul II

Animals in the Laboratory: The Success of Science and Animal Rights

Olga Dec, Anna Haberland
Adam Mickiewicz University in Poznań

*Animal Abuse in the Late Iron
Age and Early Medieval Period in Scandinavia*

* Parallel panel *

Panel VII

"Rezygnując" ze zwierząt (in Polish)

Chair: Katarzyna Kleczkowska

Urszula Ostromęcka,
Remigiusz Chrostek
Medical University in Wrocław

Vegetarian diet during pregnancy – opinions of the medical community.

Bartosz Ocipski
Jagiellonian University

Świat bez zwierząt. Problemy z abolicjonizmem

17.00-18.00 Keynote speech

Richard Twine
Centre for Human Animal Studies
Edge Hill University

*This is Not the Anthropocene
– a Critical Animal Studies
Perspective on Climate Change*