

War in Ukraine – Different perspectives from East and West Germany and the EU?

Wednesday, September 14th 2022

16:00h-19:30h

Ratskeller City Hall Dresden

- 16:00 Words of Welcome
Jan Donhauser, Deputy Mayor in charge of Education and Youth, City of Dresden
- 16:15 How are young Europeans looking at the German reunification?
Debate with participants of the rEU nify project
Moderation: Simone Klee, Institut für Europäische Politik, Germany
- 17:00 Break and Exhibition
Project posters presented by students and presentation of special issue of New Eastern Europe
- 17:30 Keynote: Which images shape the German debate on the war in Ukraine?
Ljudmyla Melnyk, Institut für Europäische Politik, Berlin
- Debate: How do the perceptions of the war in Ukraine differ between Germany and other European countries?
- Moderation: Holger Lühmann, Mitteldeutscher Rundfunk, Germany
- Barbara von Ow-Freytag, Prague Civil Society Centre, Germany (tbc)
Lisa Gaufman, University of Groningen, the Netherlands
Vít Havelka, Europeum, Czech Republic
Romain Lequiniou, Euro Créative/ International Republican Institute, France
Adam Balcer, College of Eastern Europe, Poland
- 19:30 End of Event

Language: English

Venue: City Hall Dresden: Ratskeller, Entrance Kreuzstraße 8, 01067 Dresden

The project “rEU nify” is organized by Institut für Europäische Politik, KEW College of Eastern Europe, EUROPEUM Institute for European Policy, Euro Créative and University of Groningen. It is funded by the Europe for Citizens Programme of the European Union. The event is organised in cooperation with the City of Dresden. It is additionally supported by the Otto Wolff Stiftung.

