

THE HERITAGE OF CENTRAL AND EASTERN EUROPE

Institute of European Studies, Reymonta no 4, Kraków

Room: 022

8th December 2022

15:00-15:20 Opening the conference

Welcoming by:

dr hab. Paweł Laidler, prof. UJ, the Dean of the Faculty of Political and International Studies

dr hab. Krzysztof Koźbial, prof. UJ, the Head of the Institute of European Studies

dr hab. Kinga Anna Gajda, the Organizing Committee

1st panel - 15:20-16:20

Heritage and Identity of the Central and Eastern Europe - definition and identification attempt

moderator: Kinga Anna Gajda

Ladislav Cabada Another Europe but Europe. Central Europe in the European architecture

Kinga Anna Gajda Eastern European as a community of values

Kamil Glinka Heritage in the contemporary urban policy - the case of Central and Eastern Europe

Jan Květina Liberty of Republic as Central European Inheritance? The Political Debates over True Freedom in the Enlightenment

16:20 - 16:45 coffee break

2nd panel - 16:45-18:35

Postsocialist Heritage

moderator: Marcin Galent

Ondrej Daniel Negotiating heritage: Discussions on popular music and folklore in postsocialist Europe

Jörg Morré, Christoph Meißner Performing the Victory and 'Liberation' – Soviet War Memorials in the capitals of Central and Eastern Europe

Vita Zelce Discourse of the dismantling of the monument to the victory of the USSR in the Great Patriotic War in Riga

Piotr Michalowski Lost & found - the case of adopted post-industrial German heritage in the post-war Poland

Case Studies - Central Europe

moderator: Kinga Anna Gajda

Marcin Galent Rebellious clergy and peasants. Uncomfortable heritage and memory cancellation in Poland

Krzysztof Koźbial The heritage of the Liechtenstein family in Central Europe

Andrea Schmidt „Who controls the past controls the future. Who controls the present controls the past” Historical narrative and nation building in Hungary

Nadia Bureiko National Identity in Ukraine: Heritage from the Past, Realities from the Present

19:30 Dinner

9th December 2022

10:00-11:30 3rd panel

Case Studies - Eastern Europe

moderator: Iwona Reichardt

Francesco Trupia Ghosts of Pomaks: Multiple Belonging and Non-Exclusive Heritage on the Periphery of Europe

Irena Rajcinovska-Pandeva Europeanization and Macedonian national identity

Roland Lami The culture of inclusion of marginalized groups in political and social life in the Western Balkans

11:30 Closing