

THE (NON)COMMEMORATION OF HERITAGE OF EASTERN EUROPE

Institute of European Studies, Reymonta no 4, Kraków Room: 333

4th December 2023

14:00-14:15 Opening the conference

Welcoming

1st panel - 14:15-15:15 The Post-Soviet Heritage

Vita Zelče, Discourse of the dismantling of the monument to the victory of the USSR in the Great Patriotic War in Riga

Christoph Meissner, The Withdrawal of Soviet Troops from Eastern Central Europe - Reflections on comparative and entangled History

Michał Kuryłowicz, Between canon and archive. Memory of communism in the recollections of Polish mountaineers

2nd panel – 15:15 – 15:55 The Heritage of The Czech Republic And Czechoslovakia

Ladislav Cabada, Symbolic displacement of Austrian symbols and Austria in the Czech Republic

Jan Květina, Instrumentalization of liberty and democracy in the Central European interwar authoritarian discourse: the case of Czechoslovakia

15:55 – 16:10 coffee break

3rd panel – 16:10 – 16:50 The Hungarian Heritage

Andrea Schmidt, The past living with us, the politicisation of national holidays in Hungary

Petr Körfer, Wallenstein Pageantry in Cheb (Eger)

4th panel – 16:50– 17:30- The Difficult Heritage Of Cities

Piotr Michałowski, Times of change. The (non)commemorating of heritage in the former German cities like Wrocław, within the context of Poland after 1945 and two case studies of contemporary German museums, dedicated to the memory of the expulsion

Kamil Glinka, Does urban governance really matter? Cultural development of the biggest Polish cities

THE (NON)COMMEMORATION OF HERITAGE OF EASTERN EUROPE

5th panel - 17:30 – 18:10– The Heritage Unremembered And Marginalized

Marcin Galent, Some reflections on the people's turn in humanities and its potential influence on national heritages in Central and Eastern Europe

Francesco Trupia, Commemorate or Not Commemorate? The Heroes of the Interwar Period and the Post-socialist Memory Dilemma in Bulgaria and Ukraine

19:00 dinner

5th December 2023

6th panel - 9:00-10:00 – Memory and Commemoration

Kinga Anna Gajda, Unearthing the Past: The Nexus of Communism, Socialism, and Nuclear Catastrophes and the Art of Commemoration

Krzysztof Koźbiał, The memory of the 'Czechoslovakianights'. Between myth and important historical event

Mirosław Natanek, Are values could be a permanent heritage? How Central European states perceive European values after 30 year of the membership in the Council of Europe - selected aspects

10:00 – 10:15 Closing

Funding source:

Strategic Excellence Initiative Program at the Faculty of International and Political Studies of the Jagiellonian University.

