

!!! Call For Applications !!!

Summer School

to celebrate the 100th Anniversary of the outbreak of World War I

EUROPE OF THE YOUTH - EUROPE OF PEACE

organized by Małopolska Provincial Office in Krakow, Jagiellonian University and Pedagogical University of Krakow

31 July – 10 August, 2014

WAPIENNE

the location originally straddled by the World War I frontline

Summer School will gather students, experts and teachers from 10 European countries.

Programme will consist of lectures, seminars, workshops, field trips and leisure activities in the area of:

-

We expect students from Jagiellonian University to actively participate in the summer school and serve as a “guide” for students-participants from abroad.

Accommodation, meals and travel will be covered by Organiser.

Who can apply?

BA, MA and PhD students affiliated at Jagiellonian University
Good knowledge of English is essential.

How to apply?

You will need to have an interest in the theme of summer school and will to be actively involved.

To apply please write an essay (in English, max.5 pages long) related to the theme of the Summer School.

Please send your essay and CV to Natasza Styczyńska
(natasza.styczynska@uj.edu.pl)

Deadline for application is 21st of April 2014